Excerpt: . . . lies open to the Generality of People. 13 in the New Testament, that it is attended with a strong Degree of Internal Evidence, of which, by an unaccountable Omission, you take not the least Notice; and that what is most essential to the External Proof, lies within much less Compass than you seem to imagine, and is capable, if previous Precautions be taken in a proper Manner, of being opened to Persons of an ordinary Capacity, and understood by them, tho they have neither Ability nor Leisure for the Curiosities of learned Disquisition. For the Illustration of this, you must give me Leave to remind you, that both the MoJaick and Christian Dispensations have been much misrepresented, in Consequence of Mens taking their Notions of them, rather from the Conduct of their Professors, than from the Institutes of their respective Founders. To apply this to the present Occasion, let us consider what the Case of Christians would be, with regard to the rational Evidence of their Religion, if Things were to flow on in the Channel, into which it was the apparent Design of our Divine Master to direct them. You will, no doubt, Sir, readily allow, that a pious Education, and a standing Ministry, are Appointments of our blessed Redeemer, and will spare me the Trouble of proving either of them in Form. And as you take it for granted in the whole of your Letter, that Infant Baptism is a Christian Ordinance, you will...
