Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Report of the Temporary Examiner of Public Records, 1906 In accordance with the requirements of the statute I have the honor to here present my second report as Temporary. Examiner of Public Records. The work of this office has been carried forward for the present term on the same lines as laid down in my first report. The action of the General Assembly in approving legislation asked for, which had a tendency to improve the conditions under which protection from fire was afforded, satisfied me that insistence on strict compliance with legal requirements would best carry out the ideas which led to the creation of this office. I have therefore unhesitatingly required that, so far as possible, all old and doubtful safes should be replaced by new and modern fireproof safes of a standard make. Many new safes have been purchased, but there are still in use in many towns safes used for the protection of valuable books and papers which are utterly useless for the purpose. Wherever possible I have induced the authorities to...
