A MERE MISCELLANY OF MIDNIGHT MADRIGALS (PAPERBACK)

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A MERE MISCELLANY Of MIDNIGHT MADRIGALS Is a new book of poems by the author of SOME CAME FIRST, SOME CAME AFTER and SOME CAME NAKED, William s three novels comprising his Florida Keys trilogy. Williamson s poetry is clean, stark and direct. Colloquial observations in his life and the world around him, as well as ruminations on writing. His work is always significant in the way he moves poetry to make lyrical beauty with words. Williamson calls it big woman emotion. Big woman emotion is what we feel. Big woman emotion stirs the mind, ignites the loins, and conquers the soul. It brings forth life to all of us. Without big woman emotion, we suffer, such is life, we wither and we die on the vine. Williamson s work casts traditional prose to the wayside. His poems are naked and shaved with a contemporary edge and pulse, yet, his subjects are the same that the romantic poets from the past, celebrated and inked on paper under candle light, while drowning, in chalices of wine. ABOUT THE AUTHOR William Williamson is the author of SOME CAME FIRST, the recently published first novel of his Florida Keys trilogy. The second, sequel novel, SOME CAME AFTER has a publication date for early next year. His short stories have been previously published in three Key West anthologies, Once Upon an Island, Beyond Paradise and Mango Summers featuring new Key West authors. Those books are available at bookstores in the Keys and online at Barnes Noble and Amazon. He is also the author of a collection of short stories titled, Jack, Beans and Muffins and fifteen books of poetry. Bar Snatch Tonight...
