University of North Texas Press,U.S., United States, 2001. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 234 x 163 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Stanley Marcus declared Helen Corbitt the Balenciaga of Food. Earl Wilson described her simply as the best cook in Texas. Lyndon B. Johnson loved her stroganoff and wished she would accompany him--and Lady Bird--to the White House to run the dining room. Helen Corbitt is to American cuisine what Julia Child is to French. Corbitt s genius was in presentations of new and unusual flavor combinations, colors, and even serving temperatures. She insisted on the finest, freshest ingredients, served with impeccable style. As Director of Food Services for Neiman Marcus, she traveled widely, bringing recipes back to tantalize Texans tastebuds. An Irish red-head born in New York and raised with Edwardian rules and grace, Corbitt lassoed appetites across Texas when she moved there in 1931 from her job as dietitian at Cornell Medical Center in New York City to manage the tea room at the University of Texas. She was lured to the Houston Country Club before operating the tearoom at Joske s department store in Houston and had started her own catering business when the Driskill Hotel called her back to Austin. Stanley Marcus courted her for eight years until she finally accepted his offer to direct his Dallas store s lunchtime oasis. She then dazzled celebrities and dignitaries who flocked to the famed Zodiac Room at Neiman Marcus for tantalizing cuisine. Now, you can savor Helen Corbitt all over again--or perhaps for the first time--through a brand new Helen Corbitt cookbook. In The Best from Helen Corbitt s Kitchens, Patty MacDonald serves up more than 500 favorite recipes from Helen Corbitt s Cookbook, published in 1957, Helen Corbitt s Potluck (1962); Helen Corbitt Cooks for Company...
