VDM Verlag Dr. Müller E.K. Okt 2013, 2013. Taschenbuch. Book Condition: Neu. 220x150x5 mm. Neuware - The monograph is designed to provide and refresh a number of critical concepts related to student development. It is based on basic principles which contribute to the foundation of working with students pursuing higher education in general and not specific to any discipline nor degree nor levels - under graduate, graduate or masters. After a brief Introduction, the monograph begins with discussion of the context of student within the history of higher education, understanding of core traits, characteristics of student, key definitions, review of student development theories including the four schools. Other noteworthy theories of John Dewey, Bloom's Taxonomy, Maslow's Hierarchy, the WCurve and the Doctrine of In Loco Parentis are also reviewed. It then discusses History of Student Affairs, traces the Evolution of Student Development, gives a complete idea of Developmental Needs and throws light on Holistic Student Development. Fundamentals of Student Development, underlying principles thereto are next discussed and a Student Development Checklist is also given. The last part is the Conclusion, with a Bibliography for exhaustive reading and reference. 88 pp. Englisch.
