Quincy was, indeed, the original settlement; the Mount Wollaston; the North Precinct of Braintree. This church was taken down in 1828, on the completion of the present elegant stone edifice. Here, two presidents of our nation, John Adams, and John Quincy Adams his son, were baptized, and here they regularly worshipped. The imposing funeral services at the burial of President John Adams in July 1826, were held in this church. Here too, was baptized, January 16, 1736-7, John Hancock, the patriot, President of the Continental Congress, by his father. Rev. John Hancock, fifth pastor of the church. The church has thus an historic name. This engraving was originally made for the History of Quincy published in 1827, by the late Rev. George Whitney of Roxbury, oldest son of the last pastor of the ancient church. The writer of the present sketch prepared a portion of it, some years since, for another publication. At the request of the editor of the Register he has revised and enlarged the same, and sent it with the engraving for insertion in this number. The church was built in the ministry of Rev. John Hancock, who was ordained Nov. 2, 1726.A record by him informs us: It was raised July 27- 8- 9, 1731 in peaceable times. Before its erection, the society worshipped in a stone church which stood near the present Second Congregational church, on Hancock street. This old stone church...
